

LOCATION /
TOPIC

TITLE & DESCRIPTION

Violence

Acquaintance Rape: The Ultimate Betrayal (29:00) ★ ★ ★

Most rapes are committed by people the victims know and trust. These violations force victims to deal with anger and guilt, as well as harsh judgements of society. Candid interviews present the stories behind three acquaintance rape cases. Viewers learn prevention tips, positive steps to take in reporting and recovering from acquaintance rape, and common tactics used by rapists. In addition, the social climate surrounding acquaintance rape is explored, both by young women and young men. Subtle messages like "women want it rough" are closely examined. One victim also expresses anger with the defense attorney, and society in general, for trivializing the anguish of acquaintance rape. © 2002 AIMS Multimedia

Violence

Case of Abuse (27:00) ★ ★ ★

Michelle and Doug, now in their late teens or early twenties, dropped out of high school and married. Now the parents of one-year-old Tommy, things are not going well - Doug is trapped in a dead-end job. The video engages the viewer swiftly: An opening series of wedding and baby pictures ends in the starkness of a 9-1-1 call. "A Case of Abuse" offers possibilities and points to areas of fruitful reflection and discussion: What services are available? Why are abusers violent? How can they control themselves? What should friends and relatives do? What should the judicial response be - probation or jail? © 1996 United Learning

Violence

Causes : Effects of Abuse (20:00) ★ ★

Martin Kove gives his karate students an "inner" lesson about the causes and effects of decisions, pointing out that as they become older, decision-making can become more complicated. To illustrate and to prepare teenagers for making hard decisions, he presents three situations: rehabilitation after spending time in juvenile detention, peer pressure and drinking and driving, and teen pregnancy and peer intervention. This program provides vivid media support to Health and Life Skills units on alcohol and drug education, substance abuse, behavioral choices, resisting peer pressure, teen pregnancy, and personal health. © 1990 AIMS Multimedia

Violence

Don't Suffer In Silence : Sexual Harassment (29:00) ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

When a group of students decide to make a video about sexual harassment, they encounter a female student who actually is being sexually harassed. They convince her to report the situation to a counselor. The counselor conducts a hearing, interviewing the targeted student as well as the harasser himself. Intertwined with the story are interviews with law enforcement and school officials who define what sexual harassment is, show how targeted students can empower themselves, and explain a range of consequences for students who harass others. © 2003 AIMS Multimedia

Violence

Face It : Abusive Relationships Hurt (15:00) ★ ★ ★ ★

LOCATION /
TOPIC

TITLE & DESCRIPTION

The traits and motives of both the abuser and the victim are investigated in this hard-hitting exploration of dangerous relationships. A sympathetic young host introduces dramatizations interspersed with comments and stories from real men and women who have entered counseling to heal the damage done by the bond of violence. "Red flags" in the behavior of a potential boyfriend—such as isolating the woman, manipulating aspects of her life and forcing himself on her physically—are presented clearly and frankly. Abusers in counseling talk honestly about giving up the feeling of control that violence provided, and women speak of conquering low self-esteem and hopelessness. © 2004 AIMS Multimedia

Violence

LegalEASE: Program Three: The Cycle of Violence (14:44) ★ ★ ★

In today's world, violence is everywhere. We learn about the consequences of violence. We see violent acts in movies and television programs © 1996 Louisiana Public Broadcasting

Violence

LegalEASE Program for Resolving Conflict (15:17) ★ ★ ★ ★

The first step in stopping the cycle of violence is heightening awareness of the problem. The next step is learning and practicing alternative ways to resolve conflicts. The program looks at the problem of violence in our society and presents some effective techniques for preventing violence © 1997 Louisiana Public Broadcasting

Violence

MTV's Scared Straight (Edited Version) (49:52) ★ ★ ★ ★

"The Lifers" at East Jersey State Prison show a dozen juvenile offenders, what their lives would be like in prison. Graphic accounts of prison violence, oppressive restrictions, and daily existence without family, loved ones or the simplest pleasures of life are pounded home with unremitting frankness. The goal of The Juvenile Awareness Program is to influence the teens to do a 180 degree turn away from their criminal and antisocial behavior. Segments may include racially, sexually, or politically sensitive topics or language; violence; nudity; profanity; or drug use. © 2003 AIMS Multimedia

Violence

No Means No (29:00) no ratings yet

Most rapists come from a variety of racial, ethnic, and economic groups, and they usually know their victims. As one date-rape victim shares the harrowing details of her own experience, she provides advice on avoiding the same fate. A counselor who works with rape victims also offers information on dealing with potential rape situations. The program highlights various "date rape drugs," including Rohypnol, GHB, and Ecstasy. Alcohol is also discussed as a major risk factor for rape. Various young women speak to viewers, urging them to go on group dates in places that are well populated, and to avoid drugs and alcohol. © 2001 AIMS

Violence

Overcoming Gangs : Prejudice (30:00) ★ ★ ★

LOCATION /
TOPIC

TITLE & DESCRIPTION

The program examines gangs, conflict resolution, teen violence, youth-at-risk, behavioral choices, and decision making. At seventeen, Albert was sentenced to 30 days in a juvenile detention center after being convicted of gang-related burglary. Housed in a cell with a member of a rival gang, a verbal confrontation ensued and quickly escalated into a violent encounter. Confined to the same cell, the two men finally began to talk and recognize similarities in their past. Albert's cellmate is eventually taken away to prison to serve eight to 10 years. Once Albert released, he vows never to go back to jail and overcomes the gang lifestyle that once held him down. Now 22, Albert is married and attending college. © 1998 AIMS Multimedia

Violence

Personal Safety : Muggings and Carjackings (20:23) ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

When we're out walking, or in our vehicles, we may be concerned about personal safety – but how prepared are you to avoid or ward off an attack if you're targeted by a mugger or carjacker? These assailants usually make plans to commit their crimes; shouldn't you also develop a plan – one that guards you against assault? Two law enforcement officers present practical strategies that help you take control of your own safety – on the street, in a parking lot, in your vehicle. Their simple techniques will increase your awareness and confidence, prepare you to avoid attack, and to survive the incident if you are accosted. © 2003 AIMS Multimedia

Violence

Rape : Not Always a Stranger (25:00) no ratings yet

This program provides guidelines to minimize the risk of being raped. Through enactments, a rape counselor and a law enforcement officer present and discuss several situations that may lead to rape. Safety procedures are shown. Emphasizing that reporting the crime is a crucial step in the healing process, the legal and medical procedures a rape victim goes through following a report are dramatized. This program provides a gripping media adjunct to Health and Guidance units on rape prevention and survival, violence prevention, sexual harassment, self esteem, and crime prevention. © 1988 AIMS Multimedia

Violence

Resolving Conflicts (25:00) ★ ★

Take students step-by-step through the conflict resolution process. Students learn to apply specific, easy-to-learn skills and effective strategies for resolving conflicts peacefully. © 1995 Sunburst

Violence

Scared Silent : Child Abuse (School Version) (21:00) ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

Every day, parents cross the line that separates discipline from child abuse. Oprah Winfrey introduces three incidents where parents crossed that line. This video addresses issues of child abuse, family violence, juvenile safety and injury prevention, youth-at-risk, children of alcoholics, children of divorce, parenting skills, anger management, stress management, self-esteem, substance abuse, and suicide prevention. © 1994 AIMS Multimedia

Violence

Scared Straight : 20 Years Later (1:37:06) ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

LOCATION /
TOPIC

TITLE & DESCRIPTION

In 1978, 17 teenage lawbreakers were taken inside a maximum security prison in New Jersey for crimes ranging from assault and battery to arson to illegal possession of weapons and making bomb threats. But they were in prison as part of an attempt to persuade them to abandon crime. Hardened convicts tried to scare the kids by revealing what life behind bars is really like. This video contains profanity and sensitive topics. © 1999 AIMS Multimedia

Violence

Scared Straight : 20 Years Later (School Version) (1:02:42) ★★★★★

In 1978, 17 teenage lawbreakers were taken inside a maximum security prison in New Jersey for crimes ranging from assault and battery to arson to illegal possession of weapons and making bomb threats. But they were in prison as part of an attempt to persuade them to abandon crime. Hardened convicts tried to scare the kids by revealing what life behind bars is really like. This video contains profanity and sensitive topics. © 1999 AIMS Multimedia

Violence

School Violence : The Warning Signs (39:01) ★★★★★

Recognizing the early warning signs of potentially violent behavior and having the ability to intervene appropriately are both crucial to the prevention of violence in our schools. This program explores the cooperative relationship between school districts, individual campuses, and local law enforcement agencies that supports effective violence prevention plans. School principals, guidance professionals and law enforcement officials share an analysis of school violence, factors that influence students into adopting physically aggressive behaviors, practical steps to take in addressing unacceptable behavior, a comprehensive listing of warning signs of incipient violence, and tips on the legality of school-conducted searches of students' possessions. © 1999 AIMS Multimedia

Violence

Sexual Harassment and How to Stop It (25:00) ★★

This video alerts high school students to the facts and consequences of peer sexual harassment. It shows that sexual gestures, looks, taunts, and jokes create a hostile educational environment for victims and can have a negative impact on their self-esteem and schoolwork. Viewers learn to recognize sexual harassment when they see or experience it, and are given pointers on what to do to interrupt or prevent its happening. © 1995 Sunburst

Violence

Surviving Rape : A Journey Through Grief (33:00) no ratings yet

The trauma of rape leaves victims feeling an intense grief with which they must learn to deal, if they are to return to healthy and happy lives. The five stages of the grieving process that rape victims encounter are outlined: denial, anger, depression, bargaining, and acceptance. Five women, all rape survivors, recall their individual roads to recovery, sharing common feelings of shame, self-hatred, and guilt before finally reaching acceptance and self-love. They stress the importance of talking about the rape and seeking help from a support group in order to begin healing. This program addresses rape prevention, survival and coping, violence prevention, self esteem, and crime prevention. © 1992 AIMS Multimedia

Violence

Wake Up Call (no time given) ★★★★★

LOCATION /
TOPIC

TITLE & DESCRIPTION

Young people being sexually harassed and exploited at school, at home, or at work, is a serious issue in today's world. Lizzie, a high school student, needs money for college, which she knows her parents cannot provide. She finds a part-time job at a local pizza place. Soon, however, the owner makes inappropriate sexual references and overtures. Lizzie is deeply conflicted because she needs the money, but she is upset by the incessant looks, jokes and innuendoes. She must decide whether or not to compromise her values and integrity, and keep the job. This program addresses sexual harassment, self esteem and assertiveness. © 1996 AIMS Multimedia